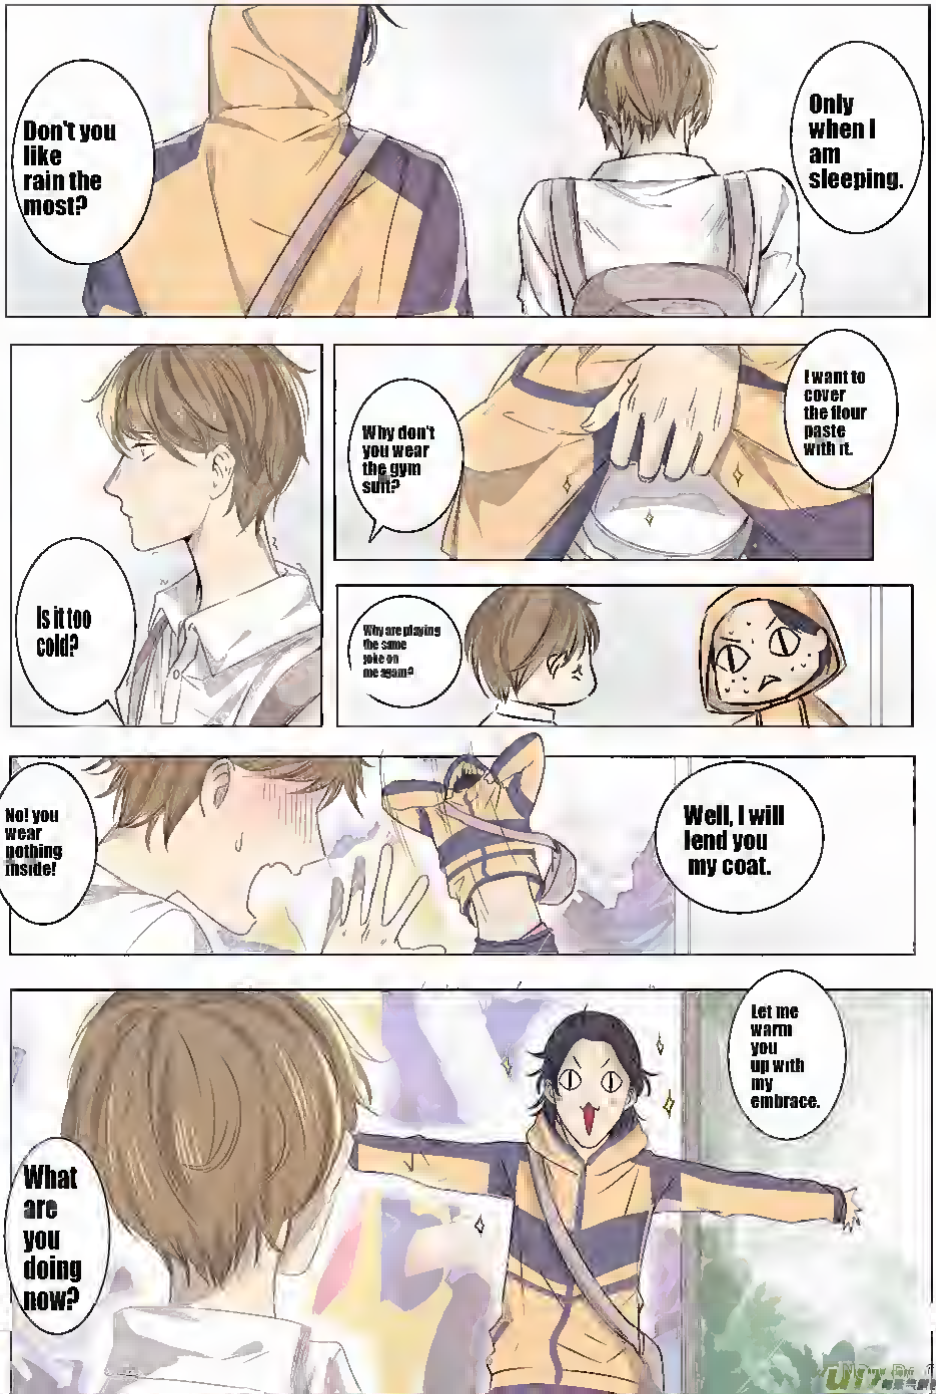
Walla-walla
Walla-walla

Maybe. I'm so sleepy. Why isn't the school bus coming?
Our clothes hanging in the balcony must have been seeked.
I hope it would stop raining.



Don't you like rain the most?
Only when I am sleeping.
Is it too cold?
Why don't you wear the gym suit?
I want to cover the flour paste with it.
Why are playing the same joke on me again?
No! you wear nothing inside!
Well, I will lend you my coat.
What are you doing now?
Let me warm you up with my embrace.

No. No!
Go away.
What if you catch a cold? Oh my babe~
Who'd wash my socks?
Still you do not need to hug me anyway.
BOOM-
But you told me it was warm just yesterday.

No... I didn't say that.
Do not worry.
We are just brothers.
It really doesn't matter.
Anyway, you won't like me.
But I felt kinda cold now.
How can I fall in love with you? I will just increasingly hate you.
Come on! Run into my warm arms!

Hey! Danzi
Let me drive you to the dorm.
Great! Teacher.
Wait!
Watch out!!

Chilling ~
Look! your face is stained with flour.
Let me help you...

Oops...He is so cute, like a hamster.
What did you say just now?
No, No, I didn't! say anything.
Ha-ha, you're really like a hamsters.
No, I'm not!
Cry if you need.
I didn't hold on my tears.
Really?
What the heck are you doing?
Hamster Danzi :p
Don't call me a hamster.
Ha-ha, isn't it painful?
Noisy..

Ah!
Stop!
Hmm~
Ha
it hurts!
Ah!
Just a second~ It's gonna coming out.
NO! STOP! It really hurts!

Your hair is so soft that the flour is stuck together.
It will never be taken out if you keep shaking
It hurts!
I told you not to run. Your hair is all stained with flour!
How come is the school blacked out at this time?
Done?

There is something on your eyelash.
Come closer.
Can you see it?
I can't Now?
I...

Bang!
Bang!
The outage is not terrible.
Here we go!
Candles
Thanks teacher! See you!
Did I make any mistakes?

Hi everyone
I start translating this manhua a month ago.
I translate this manhua becuz I love the original Chinese manhua very very much. The plot is bitter-sweet-fun.

I also want to improve my English and make more friends. I understand I'm not a native I speak somehow bad English. I look forward to hearing criticisms and suggestions about my translation.
Also I feel alone when I translate it as an individual. If you want to translate, edit, or proofread this manhua, feel free to join my group

You can leave any comments. You can help me with the typesetter n proofread. You can ask me about this manhua.

I want to share a bit more about my translation exp. This is my second Chinese manhua translation attempt. BUT my very first Chinese translation ALL by myself (I used to do a little proofreading in another manhua). I feel nervous and excited. In the past, I never think about translating a manhua as I know little about photoshop. Now I fall in love with translating manhua I must say ^^. I can easily redraw the bubble, insert my translation "fairly real-time", and share with fans!

I know I talked too much here. Anyways enjoy the manhua. I promise this manhua is promising !!!
